Dear Ambassador Florent,

It is with deep devastation and sorrow that I have learned of the inhuman terrorist attack to the Paris office of French satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo, which claimed so many lives of innocent people.

On this moment of exceptional grievance, our members and Executive Board join me to strongly condemn this loathsome act of terror, and extend our deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences to your Excellency, the families of the victims and the people of France.

This barbaric event was not only an unjustifiable and cold-blooded crime, but also a direct assault to our collective freedom and democratic values, which we hold dear for a pluralist and liberal society, and thus it is an attack against all of us!

We stand in solidarity with the French people in the fight against all forms of terror and in defending the values of democracy and freedom of speech. We cannot allow violence to prevail over our democratic values, and acts of terror like this shall never jeopardise our commitment to the freedom of speech and dissuade us from being a tolerant and liberal society.

Yours Sincerely,

Fikri Toros,

President,

Turkish Cypriot Chamber of Commerce
